HOBOKEN RESIDENTS PREPARE FOR PAGEANT LIKE KIDDIE KLUB'S

It Will Be on Large Scale and Portray Town's Eventful History.

Plans for Hoboken's historical pageant, which is to be on the same lines as that of the pageant of "Young Manhattan," recently performed by The Evening World Kiddie Klub, have progressed to a considerable extent during the past two weeks, and the indications are that the event will be one of the most picturesque ever seen in the city.

The plans are being made under the direct supervision of Commissioner of Parks and Public Property Harry L. Bohmuller. In order to get the best possible advice on the matter, the Commissioner sent his secretary, Joseph Kinnough, to The Evening World office, where he had a lengthy conference with Cousin Eleanor.

On his return Kinnough reported to the Commissioner that he had received many very valuable suggestions relative to the pageant, and it is the intention of the Commissioner to utilize these suggestions so far as the conditions in Hoboken permit. The date set in the Fourth of July, and the pageant will be the principal portion of the official celebration in the city.
